

Jesus and the Church: One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic: Scope and Sequence

The scope of this textbook and course is to encourage the students to participate in the Catholic Church in order to have a real and living encounter with Jesus Christ. The Church is the living Body of Christ, with both human and divine elements. In this text, the students will learn about key events in the Church’s human history, but always with an eye to her divine mission. The sequence of the course is arranged around the four marks of the Church—one, holy, catholic, and apostolic. This scope and sequence highlights 1) the learning focus question for each chapter; 2) the summary or main idea for each section; 3) all references to the USCCB’s Secondary Level Protocol for his text; 4) Scripture passages quoted in each chapter; 5) primary source quotations taken from Church documents; 6) all references to saints.
